Vicky “Jill” Thibodeaux, 75, of Longville, passed away Tuesday, June 23, 2020 at her home in Longville, Louisiana. Jill was born January 11, 1945, in Ponca City, Oklahoma to Leroy and Vivian Howard Scovill. The funeral service will be Thursday, June 25, at 10:00 A.M. at Squyres UMC. Interment will be at Squyres-Risinger Memorial Park. Rev. Lindsey Sirman will officiate.

Jill is survived by her six children, Wendy Manuel & husband Darrin of Longville, Derick Thibodeaux & wife Mena of Longville, Parish Thibodeaux and wife Melissa of Moss Bluff, Tara Smith of Evans, Ryan Thibodeaux of Longville, and Tandi Henry & husband John of Ragley; twenty-one grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren; one brother-in-law, Chester Ray Thibodeaux & wife Margie of Glenpool, OK; and three nieces. Jill is preceded in death by her husband of 53 years, Philip H. Thibodeaux, her parents, Leroy & Vivian Scovill, and son-in-law, Brandon Smith.

During their years together, Philip and Jill, also known as Philip’s “Magnolia Blossom” had many adventures. They owned and operated the Parkway Cafe in DeQuincy in the 1970’s and opened their family business, Thib’s Pecan House in Longville in 1976. Jill’s true passion was antiques and in the early 1990’s she co-owned with her dear friend, Anita Webb, the Sweet Buy & Buy antique shop in Longville. Although she had many accomplishments in her life, the one Jill was most proud of was her years as a math teacher at Bishop Noland Episcopal Day School and special education teacher at South Beauregard High School. She treated each of her students as her own and was an advocate for them. Jill’s hobbies were antique and garage sale shopping as well as working in her beautiful flower beds.

Jill was a graduate of McNeese Junior College and Sulphur High School. She was a founding member of Squyres United Methodist Church in Ragley and during the 1980’s opened a daycare at Squyres to serve the South Beauregard Community.
