Thomas Wayne Primeaux

11/21/1951 – 2/12/2024

Thomas Wayne Primeaux, 72, of LeBleu Settlement, passed away on Monday, February 12, 2024, surrounded by his family and friends. His memorial service will be Thursday, February 15, at 6:00pm, with a time of visitation from 4:00pm until time of service, at Open Door Baptist Church in Ragley.

Tommy was born on November 21, 1951 to Adam and Virginia Ruth LeBleu Primeaux. He was a native of LeBleu Settlement and worked as an independent roofer. He was an avid fisher and hunter, especially with his championship coon dogs. Tommy was always surrounded by friends and family, whom he loved fiercely. You only needed to talk to him for five minutes to be his best friend. Tommy was everyone's favorite uncle and candy man, never without a pocket full of butterscotch candy ready to give to whoever he met.

Tommy is survived by his daughter, Paige Melancon & husband Wade; son, TJ Primeaux & wife Dana; grandchildren Drew Melancon, Madison Melancon, Nicholas Melancon, Kanon Primeaux, Kennedy Primeaux, Karson Primeaux, Tressa Primeaux & Cory, Cortnee Lantier Primeaux & Marcus; siblings Cynthia Jean Beavers, Linden Primeaux, Richard Primeaux & Cindy, Willis LeBlanc & Denise, David LeBlanc & Carroll, Armentine Leger, and Pamela LeBlanc; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Adam & Virginia Ruth LeBleu Primeaux; siblings Ray Primeaux, Patricia Botwell, and Marie Menard; and son Shannon Primeaux.
